

The Creative Aging Toolkit

The Creative Aging Toolkit for Public Libraries is a free, online resource for librarians and provides information about creative aging research, best practices, and practical advice for the planning and implementation of creative aging programs in public libraries. The Toolkit is designed, published and administered by Lifetime Arts, Inc.

The Creative Aging Toolkit for Public Libraries was developed as part of Creative Aging in New York State Libraries: A Regional Model with National Applicability, funded through a 2011 National Leadership Grant to Westchester Library System in partnership with Lifetime Arts, from the Institute for Museum and Library Services \(IMLS\). Additional support was provided by the Helen Andrus Benedict Foundation and the American Library Association's Public Programs Office. <http://www.lifetimearts.org/services/creative-aging-toolkit/>

Lifetime Arts' Creative Aging Roster is a free public service – an evolving national online directory of teaching artists who are peer reviewed and qualified to design and deliver instructional arts programs for older adults.

Senior Service, Arts and Community Organizations or individuals can search the Roster, by discipline, location and language to connect with and hire teaching artists. Join the thousands of creative aging stakeholders who are embracing positive aging through the arts. Search Now! <http://www.lifetimearts.org/roster/>
